SATURDAY, APRIL 10. The Black Flag.

Our emotion on opening the last Gazette may be imagined, but we cannot give a description which will do justice. At the head of the editorial column was found a " skull and cross bones," almost as large as life, and terrible as death. Could it be that " the Lawyer, Editor and Minister," emarting under our strictures, bad resolved to show his colors, and give no quarter! Must we be compelled to purchase the outfit of the fighting editor of a Mississippi paper? A closer examination of the paper, however, allayed our fears. It was merely an illustrated edition of the Gazette, sanctioned by the funny genius of the Interior Department. What a medley of illustrations! First came the Royal Cont-of-Arms of Hawaii, and last a --- Ministerial Coat-of-Arms, with a death's head and bones sandwiched between; over which appears the following: "Notice is hereby given that" the offlowing emblematic devices are approved by the Minister of NOTES OF THE WEEK. THE CHINESE COOLIES .- Early in the week considerable excitement was created by rumors of a conspiracy among the Chinese coolies living in and around Honolulu to murder their employers and ereate an insurrection. The rumors, moreover, embraced the existence of a formidable secret organization supposed to number hundreds of members, the name of which was the "Two-knife Society," or Santim Hui. These stories when sifted, proved to be exaggerated and almost groundless. As near as foot, are thrown into abnormal positions; and while Cast iron sides -7x4 FT., $25 EACH. we can learn, the facts are these: A number of the bones maintain their plasticity, the effect of such coolies had a feast on Monday or Tuesday, at which unnatural tension is sure to be perpetuated, in the some got drunk, and, as may be imagined, when shape of crooked shins, bandy legs, elephantine toe John gets into that state, which to his credit be it joints, and cramped, ungraceful gait.
